

Detail-oriented architecture student with a background in economics and construction management, specializing in urban planning, sustainable design, and architectural visualization. Experienced in leading public space redevelopment, cultural projects, and sustainable living designs. Strong leadership skills through student council roles and collaboration in multidisciplinary environments. Proficient in AutoCAD, Revit, Lumion, Enscape, and BIM.

EDUCATION

Lebanese American University (LAU), Byblos, Lebanon

GPA: 3.2 (Honors)

- Bachelor of Science in Architecture (Expected 2026)
 - Minor in Construction Management
 - Relevant Coursework: Urban, Sustainability, Construction Management, Structural Systems
 - Bachelor of Science in Economics (Graduated 2022)
-

KEY PROJECTS

- Urban Planning Project – Beirut Martyrs' Square (Spring 2025)
 - Designed an urban renewal strategy to reconnect East and West Beirut.
 - Art Performance Center – Zouk Mikael (Fall 2024)
 - Developed a cultural center, integrating modern design with heritage preservation.
 - Sustainable Living Unit Design Competition (Summer 2024)
 - Created an eco-friendly housing prototype using local materials and passive design strategies.
 - International Studio Workshop – Barcelona (2024)
 - Studying Antoni Gaudí's architecture and its application in contemporary design.
-

LEADERSHIP ROLES

Vice President, Jbeil Student Council

Jbeil Campus, LAU | 2023 – 2024

- Managed student engagement activities and enhanced communication between students, faculty, and administration.
- Oversaw council operations, budgeting, and event planning.

Student Council Representative

School of Architecture and Design, LAU | 2022 – 2023

- Acted as the primary liaison between students and faculty, advocating for academic improvements.
- Organized student initiatives, events, and workshops to enhance architectural education.

Student Council Representative

School of Byblos Library, LAU | 2022 – 2023

- Acted as the primary liaison between students and faculty, advocating for academic improvements.
 - Organized student initiatives, events, and workshops to enhance architectural education.
-

TECHNICAL SKILLS

- Design & Drafting: AutoCAD, Revit, Lumion, Enscape, Illustrator, VR modeling
 - Project Management: Construction coordination, scheduling, cost estimation
 - Urban Planning & Sustainability: Green architecture, pedestrian-friendly spaces, public realm design
 - Languages: Fluent in English, Arabic, and French
-

CERTIFICATIONS & ACHIEVEMENTS

- AIAS (American Institute of Architecture Students) Member
- Revit certified
- Sustainable Design Competition winner
- Award from the Batroun municipality for my Design V museum of war