For interior design visionaries, we present the CONGO Table: a seemingly simple piece that unveils itself as a masterpiece for those with refined sensibilities. Its hollow structure, expertly veneered with natural wood, transcends functionality, becoming a contemporary sculpture. This table, like a carved block of wood, is a timeless manifestation that transforms the everyday into something exceptional. For creatives yearning to break free from conventions and craft authentic spaces, this table is the piece that elevates the ordinary to the extraordinary.
